Two East Tennessee Guard units receive mobilization orders

NASHVILLE -- The Tennessee National Guard's 730th Quartermaster Company, composed of soldiers from Johnson City (Gray) and a detachment from Erwin, have received mobilization orders effective Saturday, June 30. A total of 120 soldiers will report to the armory in Gray on that date.

Upon completion of administrative and logistics operations, the units will move to Camp Shelby, Mississippi, on July 5 for continued training and preparation for deployment.

The 730th Quartermaster Company is being deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Specific destinations are not announced by the National Guard for operational security reasons.
